WOMAN'S CLUB ENTERTAINS A BIG DONORA DELEGATION

The meeting of the Monessen Woman's club yesterday afternoon with Mrs. E. C. Sattley, 401 McKee avenue, was one of the most pleasingly appointed held since the institution of that organization. Mrs. Sattley, the hostess, had planned well and the members and guests were most happily entertained.

Instead of the usual program of papers, reading, etc., a unique change was made. Prof. Kniffin of the Arts Department of the University of Pittsburgh, having delivered an address on "Art as Applied to Home Decorations and Dress."

Prof. Kniffin's talk was decidedly pleasing and beneficial as he is thoroughly versed on his subject and handled it exceedingly well, and while the talk was in a manner technical, it was very plain, pointed and comprehensive.

In addition to Prof. Kniffin's address a number of very pleasing vocal solos were rendered by Mrs. Letha Frazier Rankin of Pittsburgh, which were very highly appreciated by the company, as were also piano solos by Mrs. Calvin H. Dils and vocal renditions by Miss McCleary of California.

A pleasing feature of the gathering was the presence of twenty two ladies from the Donora Woman's club, who by pre-arrangement were guests of the local organization in order to hear Prof. Kniffin's address. The guests from Donora were:

Mrs. W. J. Brown, Mrs. C. F. Thomas, Mrs. Jas. P. Castner, Mrs. Jas. G. Binns, Mrs. T. H. Robinson, Mrs. R. E. Koehler, Mrs. Karl Miller, Mrs. W. H. Lewis, Mrs. E. C. Morrison, Mrs. Chas. Roof, Mrs. C. D. McCune, Mrs. Eugene Thompson, Mrs. Anna Bussman, Mrs. G. E. Koedel, Mrs. W. H. Watson, Mrs. P. A. Burkhart, Miss Mary Hambry, Misses Margaret and Emma Perkins, also Mrs. F. J. McMahon and Mrs. D. A. Rupert of Webster and Mrs. Vernon Paulette of Farmville, Va.

Mrs. Sattley as hostess was ably assisted in receiving by Mrs. H. O. MacDonald and Mrs. R. Preston, while Mrs. C. L. Schuck, the new club president and Mrs. Chauncey Duvall, past president, poured tea in the serving of refreshments. The club colors, yellow and white were in order, tulips and daffodils being the favored flowers. The atendance of the local Womans club was large, they along with their invited friends and guests swelling the number to seventy.

EXPENSE BILL AVERAGES UP VERY LIGHT

Frank Bumer, chairman of the finance committee of council, and J. E. Pittman, borough clerk, have prepared a statement of the cost of the special election to determine the desire of the people with regard to a Third class city. The expense is as follows:

Election Board	$75.00
Election returns transportation	$12.00
Printing	$45.38
Polling places	$20.00
Legal papers and filling	$50.00
Printing Ballots	$ 7.00
Total	$209.88

Assessment to 106, $1.98 each. Should the other ten wish to join, the amount can be somewhat reduced. The petition is at the office of Frank Bumer, where the city mourners may call and sign and pay their little share. Nothing but cash or certified checks will be received.

Advice to Business Men.

At the Union League dinner in Philadelphia, Senator Elihu Root, said. "Business men should see that they are not misrepresented or misunderstood. They should get out of the condition of mind which they have been in, and should assert themselves and put forth a campaign of education and instruction so that the people of all sections of America can honor and respect each other as Americans. Get out of the condition in which one part of the nation feels no regret at the disasters of another section. Remember that regulation, inspection and so forth, of business, hold a danger, the danger that the power of regulating and controlling will be abused; and this the business men of the nation must prevent. I grieve to see men out of work, but this is nothing to the danger that the people may become subservient to power, and therefore it is the duty of the American people, of the Republican party and this great old club to work for the preservation of individual independence, and the rights and integrity of the people."

THE NEY LADIES' STORE IS NOW MONSTER EMPORIUM

Workmen have finished connecting the store rooms, and the force of the A. R. Ney company is now busy moving into the room of the Cox building, which has been made an addition to the original store, giving double the room. The entire interior has been redecorated and arranged in the most convenient as well as artistic manner. All the departments are now being rearranged. There is but one entrance to the building, the front of the Cox building being closed and one large show window placed along the entire building. When completed this will be one of the largest department stores in this section of the country.

Big Olympic Program

At the Olympic theatre, a great bill as follows:

Saturday—Diana, the Eagle of Montana," featuring William Clifford and Marie Walacamp.

Monday—"The Black Box!" also "The Storm" in two reels, featuring Warren Kerrigan.

"Wifey's Fling" featuring Mary Pickford.

Without doubt this will be one of the best of the week, featuring all star actors and actresses.

Tuesday a return date of "The Last Dance" in five reels. An exceptional good picture.

No talking moving pictures at the Olympic today on account of delay in receiving the films, but tomorrow, Saturday, the talking moving pictures will be on. 1t

WADING IN THE MIRE SHE BECOMES ANGRY

"Come out when it is raining and the mud is nice and juicy, Mr. Editor, and see how much we need paving." Thusly writes a McMahan borough woman who claims she has to wear snow plow shoes to get to her house. She pays taxes too, she says. Dear Sister, if your husband will pardon than endearing term on the part of an editor, we believe you, every word of it. But you know, sister, the editor couldn't help you one iota, even though he be inclined for it takes money to pave streets and the council can't do a thing unless they have the money.

Do you remember a few months ago when the council made plans for a lot of improvements and asked the electors to vote the money in the treasury, the vote went the wrong way and the council has a hard time to keep the town going on the finances that come in from the taxes. Of course they could have raised the millage and soaked us an extra couple of mills additional for paving purposes, but after a bond issue was defeated, they feared to take such actioin lest a storm of protest come down upon them. Now, sister, we have explained the matter as we see it without fear or favor, and we trust that you will see the whys and wherefores of it all. Let us hear from you again when convenient.

If you eat ice cream eat the best. Hagan's, for sale exclusively at Kirk's drug stores.

MISSION AT ST. LEONARDS CHURCH DRAWING CROWDS

Much interest has centered about the special Mission being held in St. Leonard's church on Schoonmaker avenue since March 14, and each evening the church is crowded with both Catholic and Protestant adherents, and a great spiritual awakening and much moral good is being accomplished.

The leading factors in this series of meetings is the Rev. Father Joachim and Rev. Father Robert, Passionate Fathers of Pittsburgh, who are working together here.

The mission began Sunday, March 14 and will close March 28. During the mission special masses have been held mornings at 5 and 8 o'clock, all of which are largely attended and deep interest is shown.

All the morning services are accompanied by short sermons or instructions by the visiting Fathers.

The evening meetings have become extremely popular and each night the attendance is large.

Prayer service is the form of opening, usually conducted by Father Joachim with brief instructive talks, followed by Father Robert, who is said to be one of the finest and most powerful talkers ever heard in Monessen. He is firm in his conviction and fearless in expression, giving the gospel truth as he sees it, regardless of who it hits or misses. His good work here is being talked of all over the town, the services have been attended by thousands of people, many of whom come from nieghboring towns.

Rev. Father Robert is perhaps the oldest mission worker of the Catholic church in this part of the country, he having been engaged continuously in that branch of the work for thirty-seven years, and almost wherever there is a Catholic house of worship, he is known and highly spoken of. The meetings will close Sunday, Mar. 28th.

Conkey's Laying Tonic will make the hens lay more eggs—25c and 50c at Kirk's.

Hard Job Getting Man for Judge

Uniontown, Pa., March 26—Senator W. E. Crow when asked tonight if he had to pick a candidate to succeed Judge Robert E. Umbel, who resigned from the Common Pleas bench to avoid embarrasing investigation of his political campaign in 1909 by the Legislature, positively said, "No."

Attorney W. J. Sturgis, a law partner of E. H. Reppert, a former judge, was asked if he was a candidate to succeed Judge Umbel. He, too, answered emphatically "No," and indicated that he wished this to be given publicity.

A new turn in the political upheaval came today when Attorney H. S. Dumbauld, the man who forced Mr. Umbel to resign, called a special meeting of the Bar association for noon tomorow. Mr. Dumbauld was only recently appointed president of the Fayette County Bar association. It is being whispered about among attorneys that the meeting is for the purpose of recommending a candidate for the position made vacant by Mr. Umbel. While attorneys discussed this during the evening they declined to affirm it.

Judge Umbel's political paper today threatening a sweeping political investigation which would include the judicial contests of the county for a period of 25 years.

CARE FOR BIRDS

Soon the ambitions of boys and girls to play marbles and fly kites will begin to wane and a very good substitute for the pleasure for boys and even for girls and older people consists in the planning, construction and erection of homes for the birds. Abundant amusement may be found in having several small bird boxes in trees or on poles in yards where birds will take fancy to make homes and rear their young during the summer months.

Not all kinds of birds are willing to make their homes in boxes in this part of the country. The robbin will build her nest in a tree near a house, but will avoid a box. The bluebird, martin and sparrows are box dwellers. They do not hesitate in coming near dwelilng houses if the surroundings are quiet and reasonably shady. They are cheerful companions. The martin especially insists upon being in town. It refuses to go to the quiet of the country.

Near home birds have many enemies. From the high priced favorites to the fighting mongrel tramps, constantly watch birds in all their movements. Cats will plunder a bird nest if given a shadow of a chance. A tramp cat will create more screams by birds and children in ten minutes than may be imagined.

Nesting boxes should be located in trees and on tops of poles so that it will be impossible for a cat to get near them. The entrance to the bird box should not be made too large and not more than one hole to a room. Boxes may be made artistic or plain and simple.

Thousands of birds of the good variety are needed in this country to feed upon moths, bugs, worms and insects which are causing great trouble to gardners and lawns, and the nesting box is one of the best inducements.

VENTURESOME YOUTH

"The birdmen who have best ventured," says The Lookout, "have been men who were aged from 18 to 25. That is the period of venture. Soldiers are best soldiers at that age. Pirates were most adventuring within the limit of those years. Prize fighters, baseball players, athletes of every sort, to be at their best must be within those limits. Youth must be served. And youth believes in its immortality. No one who was ever young believed that he would grow old. The young never believe their power will diminish. Always they believe it will increase on and on and never grow.

Mills Resuming

Youngstown, O., March 26—Mahoning Valley Amalgamated Association sheet mill workers expect approval of the wage reduction at the third referendum vote, to be taken Saturday. So confident are some of these workers that they are planning to relight fires Sunday for an early resumption Monday morning. Telegraphic returns of the vote are being arranged for and on the basis of this informal report sheet mill men in this section plan to get their mills under way awaiting official returns.

CONDENSED MILK FRIGHTENS ROBBER

A can of condensed milk hurled at an intruder by a Third street woman yesterday probably prevented a daylight robbery. The man attempted to enter the house and the woman saw a can of sour milk on the window sill in time to grab it and hurl it at the intruder. The milk was sour and nauseating and the man went down the street smelling loudly.

QUICK RELIEF FROM CONSTIPATION

Get Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets

That is the joyful cry of thousands since Dr. Edwards produced Olive Tablets, the substitute for calomel.

Dr. Edwards, a practicing physician for 17 years and calomel's old time enemy, discovered the formula for Olive Tablets while treating patients for chronic constipation and torpid livers.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets do not contain calomel, but a healing, soothing vegetable laxative.

No griping is the "keynote" of these little sugar coated, olive-colored tablets. They cause the bowels and liver to act normally. They never force them to unnatural action.

If you have a "dark brown mouth" now and then—a bad breath—a dull, tired feeling—sick headache—torpid liver and are constipated, you'll find quick, sure and only pleasant results from one or two little Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets at bedtime.

Thousands take one or two every night just to keep right. Try them 10c and 25c per box. All druggists.

There is more Catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and until the last few years was supposed to be incurable. For a great many years doctors pronounced it a local disease and prescribed local remedies, and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Science has proven Catarrh to be a constitutional disease, and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Rev. Bemises' Strong Talk on Backsliders

On account of the inclemency of the weather last evening the congregation at the Presbyterian church was not as large as the preceding one. Yet the sermon by the evangelist lacked not in ardor and the interest was greater than any of the former meetings. Rev. Bemies delivered a sermon on hypocrites and backsliders, and after his usual unique manner, the sermon had many surprises for those who have never delved into the real Biblical meaning of these terms.

The evangelist declared that the real hypocrite was a rare specimen of humanity, while backsliders are very numerous. The actual hypocrite is one who deliberately determined to lead a dual life, and lives with his face away from God. But the backslider is one who still has his face towards God, and not only knows he is a sinner, but actually expects some time to return to his God.

The hypocrite is generally one who attends church, the backslider is seldom inside a church because he is ashamed. Hypocrite may pay his pledges, pray and boost the work of the church, while the backslider may do none of these things. The hypocrite is not simply a man who lives a dual life, but does so after premeditation, and purposely to deceive his fellows. Yet, declared the evangelist, there is only one deceived and that is the hypocrite himself. Everyone konws him, yet they are actually few in number. Even though all men are tainted with at least a tendency towards hypocricy, in that most people would appear better than they really are, yet strange to say, that not many true types can be found.

The evangelist appealed to all not to confound these two characters, one of which Christ pronounced the bitterest woes, and the other he gave His most precious promises. The preacher had no more charity for the hypocrite than the Christ whom he serves. Yet his tenderness toward the backslider was effective and soul stirring. Through the effective preaching of the visiting pastor, the Christian fellowship of the church is growing, and the get-to-gether spirit is quickening the entire congregation. The afternoon prayer meetings are intensely interesting. There will be but one prayer meeting on Saturday, at the home of Mrs. Brightwell on Reed avenue. Pastor and the people extend a hearty welcome to all who appreciate the sound gospel presented in its fullness by a strong man, to attend these services.

Snake Bite Cause of Her Troubles

Haggard and worn from a life of hard work and worry, Mrs. Mary Holliday, ager 77 years, of Brownfield, has just been released from the Fayette county jail at Uniontown when her son, William Holliday, came running into the jail almost breathless and telling Deputy Warden Hugh Gorley between gasps that he had just received a letter form his mother telling him that she was in a dying condition and begging him to come to her assistance. The man was soon informed that his mother was not dying nor was she very ill, other than having a craving for whiskey which had been refused her since her arrest about twenty days ago, at which time the burgess sent her to jail for thirty days.

When asked if he would take his mother to Brownfield and force her to remain at his home there if she were released, William Holliday gave his solemn promise and was told that he could take his mother home with him. While waiting in the office of the jail while the officials were releasing his mother from a cell in the woman's department of the jail, following the receipt of a release from the burgess, Holliday, who is about 34 years of age, told a pitiable tale of his aged mother's life.

Holliday stated that death to many members of his mother's family, poverty necessitating hard work and almost a continuous string of troubles, had been the root of his mother's downfall. He stated that some time ago she was bitten on the foot by a large copperhead snake and that the wounds have never healed. She had never bothered whiskey until that time, he said, but was given liquor as a stimulant when she was bitten. Since that time he claims his mother craves for liquor continuously and demands every cent he earns to purchase whiskey.

He claimed that his mother had written him that she was dying and that he had lost a day's work to come to Uniontown to see her. He declared that in the future, instead of giving his mother his earnings to purchase whiskey he is going to spend them in having a physician treat her and endeavor to cure her of the griping habit which he says is "killing my dear old mother by inches." Mary Holliday is one of the most familiar figures that ever appeared in police circles and when she gets intoxicated is picked up in a drunken sleep.

WOMEN WHO ARE ALWAYS TIRED

May Find Help in This Letter.

Swan Creek, Mich.—"I cannot speak too highly of your medicine. When through neglect or overwork I get run down and my appetite is poor and I have that weak, languid, always tired feeling, I get a bottle of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and it builds me up, gives me strength, and restores me to perfect health again. It is truly a great blessing to women, and I cannot speak too highly of it. I take pleasure in recommending it to others."—Mrs. ANNIE CAMERON, R.F.D., No. 1, Swan Creek, Michigan.

Another Sufferer Relieved.

Hebron, Me.—"Before taking your remedies I was all run down, discouraged and had female weakness. I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and used the Sanative Wash, and find today that I am an entirely new woman, ready and willing to do my housework now, where before taking your medicine it was a dread. I try to impress upon the minds of all ailing women I meet the benefits they can derive from your medicines."—Mrs. CHARLES ROWE, R. F. D., No. 1, Hebron, Maine.

If you want special advice write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., (confidential) Lynn, Mass. Your letter will be opened, read and answered by a woman and held in strict confidence.

Money for Mass

An estate valued at $1,050 is left by Bridget Quinn of Vanderbilt "to be used by my executor for masses for my soul." The will of Mrs. Quinn has been probated in the office of the regisier of wills at Uniontown and letters testamentary were issued to J. W. Madigan who was named as executor in the will. Mrs. Quinn died at her home in Vanderbilt on March 20. Provisions of Mrs. Quinn's will are:

"First, I will that my property be sold as soon as convenient after my decease, and after my just debts are paid by my executor, hereinafter named, and the rest and residue of my estate I bequeath as follows:

"I bequeath to my children, Mary Huey, widow, Ellen King, wife of Joseph King, John Quinn and Thomas Quinn, one dollar each.

"The remainder of my estate I will that it be used for my executor for masses for my soul."

The will was made June 25, 1914.

Echoes From Failure of Local Milliner Store

A clipping from the court news of the Warren, O., Tribune is as follows:

"Robert T. Izant has commenced action against Cora A. Wilkins asking judgment in the sum of $1,188.79, claimed to be due on promissory notes."

Mrs. Cora A Wilkins, a Belle Vernon milliner, is the person referred to, and it will be remembered that she and Mrs. Dorena Carpenter of Warren, O., for a time operated a millinery establishment on Donner avenue, Monessen, and that the place was quite suddenly closed up, followed by charges and counter charges being made by the two women.

This local occurrence was about a year ago, and at that time Mrs. Wilkins claimed that Mrs. Carpenter had disappeared with money entrusted to her care, while on the other hand, Mrs. Carpenter denied, claiming back salary, etc., due her.

Out of this came charges and surcharges in the courts at Warren, O., where the case seems to be hanging fire, in an unsettled state.

The Monessen store was located in the Flack building, 372 Donner avenue and at the time of its closing some bills were left unpaid and wholly ignored. But assurance is now given by the interested Ohio parties that these bills may some day be paid, provided an equitable and just settlement is reached with the estate of Mrs. Wilkins.

LESTER Pianos!

Easy payments. As low as $10 and $5 per month on some of them

The Player-Piano Has Done as Much to Educate the Public in Music as the Printing Press Did to Disseminate General Knowledge

THE invention of the player-piano marked the greatest educational event since the perfection of the modern printing press. In the days before printing became an art, the great masses of the people could not read or write and had no means whatever of obtaining an education.

Prior to the advent of the player-piano, thorough knowledge of the music of the great masters was almost an impossibility with the mass of the people.

But today, with a player-piano in your home, every member of the family can play correctly, and with individual feeling, the music of the world's best composers.

As a means of educating the young people in acient and modern classics and popular music, the player-piano stands pre-eminently today, just as the printing press on the matter of general education.

As an investment for the whole family which will pay large dividends in entertainment, enjoyment and culture, nothing can equal the purchase of a Lester Player piano.

County May Have Corps of Gum Shoe Detectives

It is possible that ere long new members may be added to District Attorney C. Ward Eicher's official family in the way of new county detectives, to have headquartres in Greensubrg.

A bill authorizing the district attorneys of Westmoreland, Luzerne, Schuylkill and Lackawanna counties was passed in the house of representatives at Harrisburg this week, and should the Senate concur and the governor sign the porposed act, four jobs paying from $1,500 to $2,000 per year will be at the disposal of District Attorney Eicher. The bill creating the new jobs in the counties named was proposed and endorsed at a convention of the district attorneys of the state held at Harrisburg last summer.

District Attorney Eicher in discussing the proposed new law states that even was the bill to become a law he had no thought at this time of taking advantage of it, and making the appointments, or rather recommending the appointments to the court. He has an idea, however, respecting county detectives which may be carried out in due time, and that is that detectives under the control of the district attorney's office should be personally unknown to the general public if substantial and effective work is to come from them.

"I have not formed a plan regarding the law in case it becomes effective," said Mr. Eicher. "Of course we have the state police to help us, but to my mind the officers who pretend to do the work in connection with the district attorney's office should be practically unknown to the people at large. Then they could accomplish the needs intended.
